

Here's a great last minute Christmas gift idea for your friends and loved ones with a passion for Carnival Glass.

The Carnival Glass Society is offering a fantastic gift membership package which provides the lucky person who receives this present with :

- a quarterly 40 page CGS Newsletter packed full of articles, news and carnival stories from our members (see our website under Newsletter for a sampler) that will be delivered to them in February, May, August and October 2019;
- the ability to buy and sell carnival glass through our website Members' Area 'Carnival Glass Market' and at our annual weekend;
- ability to attend CGS carnival glass events such our Spring Break Weekend and 'get togethers' in members' homes to see their collections;
- discounts at certain fairs and a whole host of other benefits.

As a Christmas Bonus, we shall also provide the person who receives this gift with the final issue of our CGS Newsletter from last year together with a Special 16-page Research Supplement.

There are 3 types of membership (ranging from £14 to £32) – see our website for further details.

To purchase this gift package using PayPal, please click here to access our Webstore . You will need to select one of the 3 Gift Membership options, remembering to add the name of the recipient, before proceeding to PayPal to complete the transaction.

As the giver of the gift, you will receive a redeemable voucher from our Membership Secretary which you can give to your friend or loved one as a lovely surprise for them to open on Christmas morning. All the recipient has to do is then register the voucher and their membership of the Carnival Glass Society is complete.

Any queries about this Gift Package, or additional special instructions, should be sent to our Membership Secretary at cgs.memsec@gmail.com .
